Introduction	10
Research Methodology	11
Defining Talent Acquisition Systems	13
Summary of Key Findings	15
1. Today's Talent Acquisition Systems Providers Are Responding to the Market by Offering More Innovation in Advanced Features and Strategic Partnerships.	15
2. Although Many of Today's Solution Providers Are Offering Full Talent Management Suites, Organizations Are Slow to Embrace One Platform for Both Recruitment and Employee Development.	16
3. Organizations Need to Consider Integrating Their Talent Acquisition Systems with Their Human Resource Management System (HRMS) and Third-Party Recruitment Providers during the Implementation Stages.	16
4. Customers Are Demanding More Web 2.0 Capabilities and Social Networking Integration from Their Talent Acquisition Providers.	18
5. Global Support Needs to Encompass More Than Multilingual Configuration Including Compliance to Local Regulations, Currency and Time Zone Support.	19
6. Market Churn Is a Constant in Today's Talent Acquisition Marketplace.	20
7. Solution Providers Are Experiencing an Uptick in Customers from High-Volume Industries, Such as Retail and Hospitality.	20
8. Contact Management Needs to Be a Priority When Considering Talent Acquisition.	21
